1. MYSTERY IN THE SKY

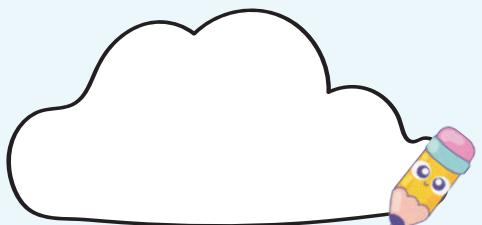

1

I come after the rain, shining bright. With seven colours in my light. What am I?

2

I shine so bright up in the sky.
Without me, plants would surely die. What am I?

I float up high, both big and small. Sometimes I'm white, sometimes I fall. What am I?

4

I can be gentle or I can roar.
I move the leaves and so much more. What am I?

5

2. MYSTERY IN NATURE

1

I stand tall against the sky,
Where the eagles love to fly.
What am I?

2

I have branches and leaves,
and grow so tall. As the winter
sets in, you see some of me fall. What am I?

3

I have feathers and I can fly. I sing a song up in the sky.
What am I?

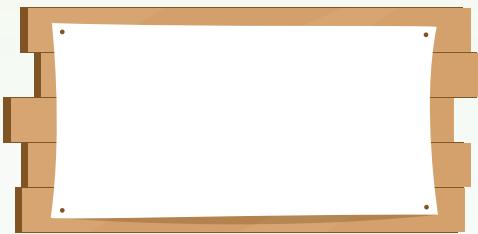

4

I cover the earth, small and thin. A carpet of green where life begins. What am I?

I fly from bloom to bloom,
making honey in every room.
What am I?

I come in many colours, bright and fair. Make gardens look pretty everywhere.

What am I?

I travel down hills and over pebbles. With water that's fresh and sometimes bubbles.

What am I?

8

I flutter by with wings so bright. Visiting the flowers in the light. What am I?

3. MYSTERY IN THE JUNGLE

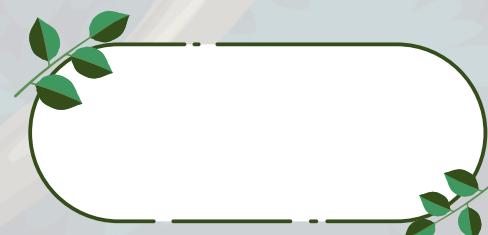

1

I'm colourful and I love to squawk. Flying through the jungle, I love to talk. What am I?

2

I jump and splash in jungle pools. With strong legs like springy tools. What am I?

3

I slither silently on the ground. In the jungle, I'm often found. What am I?

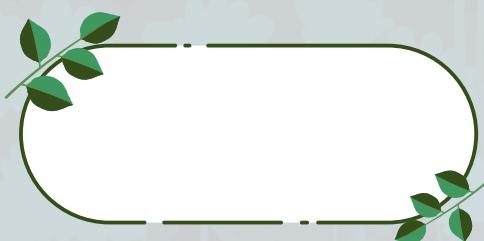

4

With a neck so long, I reach up high. Eating leaves from trees near the sky. What am I?

With stripes of orange and black so bright. I prowl the jungle both day and night.
What am I?

With claws so sharp and fur so thick. I roam the woods, both slow and quick. What am I?

I love to swing and play all day.
From tree to tree, I make my way. What am I?

4. MYSTERY UNDERWATER

Smart and playful, with a smile so bright. I jump and flip;
what a delight! What am I?

With eight long arms, I can hide and play. In caves and rocks, I like to stay.
What am I?

3

I swim with fins in the ocean blue. In schools of friends, I travel too. What am I?

I have five arms and move so slow. In tide pools, I'm a star, you know. What am I?
